ENTRIES ARE DUE
JUNE 30!

June 26, 2015

Strange things around town: A guy & gal standing on the corner of Vandehei & Yellowstone. Both staring intently into their phones. Camera pointed south. Big camera on a tripod. 20 minutes later both are sitting, staring at nothing. Big camera still pointing south, down Yellowstone. Now, generally speaking, I'm not a paranoid person.....

Things I don't recommend for summer reading: Game of Thrones, book 3, whatever its name. I get them mixed up. It's a bit like reading Deuteronomy or the begats in Genesis. It's about a whole bunch of people who aren't important for the story, but who are related to current characters, but who are 300 years dead.

You may ask why I am still listening to such a book-I'm hoping to glean in between all the begats some storyline advancements. There aren't many, let me tell you. If this had been his first book, he'd never have been published. I even thought I was listening to the wrong CDs at first, because the book begins with characters never before introduced.

I only started the series because of the dragons. So far, there is not much activity that way. A young male (that's important, I think) college student introduced me to the series about 10 years ago. I was traveling with the students to Roatan Island for a 7 day scuba diving adventure. I'm a strange, old (50, then, but that's old to 18 year olds) alumni person traveling with college kids-you gotta find common ground somewhere. He told me about a great new series that was wonderfully intricate-not like the more wimpy fantasy series with elves, dwarves, talking dragons and magic. No this one had fighting and struggles for the crowns & kingships. Cool.

So I gave it a try. When the first likeable character died, I gave up. Then the tv show came on 5 years later and I gave it another try. I felt like Sam Malone, on Cheers, who had just discovered that he could have watched a 3-hour version of War & Peace instead of reading 1500 pages.

So you may be wondering, why listen to the books if you're watching the show? That's an excellent question, especially given the 3rd book. I guess I'm hoping for more information to fill in the gaps of the story. But if book 4 is as dull.....

So why is it important that it was a young, male college student who recommended the book? Fighting. Incredibly complicated & complex fighting with details down to how many nails are in the horse's shoes. (For want of a nail, the horse was lost, or as Richard the III said, a horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse, etc.) And gratuitous sex. As much nudity in the book as in the show. But you can fast forward through all of that, including the fighting scenes. There is only so much blood & gore & naked bodies, front & back, that's tolerable. What you can't avoid are the deaths of the main characters. Game of thrones has Downton Abbey beat, hands down, for the killing off of main characters.

I don't think there is one yet alive that I want to see win the "Iron Throne," meaning be the one & only king. Of course, it may wind up being a woman. One who rides dragons. And I might like that. If I can just get through book 3, that is.

Which brings up another issue: An English teacher in New York wants to ban Shakespeare, and all great literature, from the teaching schedule. It's not relevant any more, she said. Think about it: No War & Peace. No Richard the III. No Genesis. I'd never be able to write a column. Dan Brown would never be able to write a book like The Lost Symbol, which I am reading and which is wonderful and revolves around Dante's Inferno.

But enough of that. I need to update you on the eagles. At least 1 chick is hatched! I saw a fuzzy head just over the top of the nest, with mama, or daddy, standing guard. I'm not sure I can get pictures. The tree is really tall and the eagles are really big.

PREVIEW OF FALL CLASSES

I know it's early, but with everyone shop hopping this summer I'd like to give you a goal--something to look for.

In September, we will have another English Paper Piecing class--this time on a miniature scale. Don't let that scare you off--what it means is, you can finish it because it is small!

The blocks are tiny, about an inch wide and maybe 2" long, pointed on each end and you will need about 105 of them. The quilt is called a "Chit Chat" quilt or a "Conversation" quilt.

My challenge to you is to find fabrics that "chit chat" about your life. For example, I will have dogs, cats, parakeets, ducks and horses in my quilt. Plus roses, the word "huskers" because I was born in Nebraska.

Find images on fabric that represent your life, where you have traveled, what you have accomplished, your job, your kids, your family, where you've lived, what you like to read, what you like to eat. Favorite flowers, birds, time of year.

And I will be collecting tiny prints available at the shop (and my home stash) and will provide a packet of 4"-6" squares of a variety of tiny images that will be part of the class fee--everyone who signs up will get the packet of squares. And during class we can exchange fabrics as well.

So start collecting and think tiny.

The 2015 theme is Row by Row H₂O, and each shop will have a row with the water theme. The patterns are free, limit 1 to a customer. Patterns are not available online or by mail. QUILT CHALLENGE!

The Buckeye Community Club is hosting a 6th annual quilt and fabric arts show September 19 & 20. The show is celebrating the 90th anniversary of the Buckeye School, which now serves as a community center.

The show will have 30 contemporary quilts and fabric arts pieces, each displayed with an antique or traditional quilt, matched for color, fabric, technique or other connection.

The theme for this year's show is Happy Birthday! and the Buckeye Community Club is looking for quilters and artists to make a small quilt (about 48" X 48", doesn't have to be square) to donate to the show. The show will sell the pieces as unique birthday cards or presents -- so use your imagination in creating your quilt. Proceeds from the sale will help to preserve and improve the historic Buckeye School and rural community.

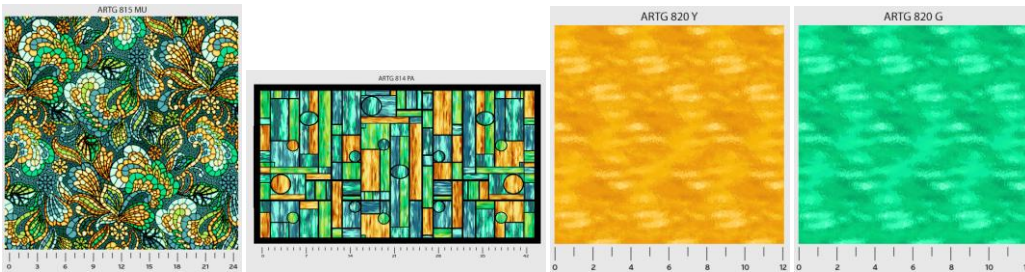

As an incentive, monetary prizes will be awarded for the Grand Champion ($100?) and People's Choice, Best Technique, Artistic Merit and Innovation ($50? each). (Monetary amounts still being decided.)

Quilts do not need to be finished before September, but the Club needs your commitment. You can contact Ed Harris at 970-568-3401 or at eharris@frii.com to let him know that you plan to participate.

If you have wanted to do an fusible appliqued quilt (stars, hearts, turtles, pigs, anything you can imagine) the Silhouette Cutter will do it! Come watch the demo and learn some of the tricks to getting good cuts.

MINE CRAFT QUILT CLASS JULY 16 & 30, 1-5 $20

The oh so ever popular Mine Craft computer game has interesting pixelated characters that translate easily into quilt blocks. For the uninitiated, the "quilt blocks" will be made up of 2" squares (or smaller), with the colors placed to imitate the Mine Craft character. Sewing is simple--sew all the squares together. The hard part is choosing which green to put where. Patterns of various Mine Craft characters and images will be provided. Students are expected to bring fabric suited to the game--ask your kids, they'll know what I'm talking about. (Essentially, lots of greens, some pink, some red, gold, brown, silver & blue.) Patterned fabrics will work, but stick mostly with tone on tone prints and some solids. Class will be divided into choosing & cutting your squares, and starting to sew your squares. I will have fat quarter bundles suitable for the blocks, but please bring your own fabrics and plan to exchange colors with other class members.

Disappearing 9-patch Sun. July 19, 1-5 $20

If you missed the class the first time, we're doing it again! Take 5" squares (48 variety, like a charm pack or 2), combine with 48 5" squares of 1 color, plus 12 squares for a "center" color and you have the making of a quick & easy quilt!

Jelly Roll Race Sat. July 18, 10:30-5 $20

On your marks, get set.....sew! Learn the mechanics of manipulating impossibly long strips of fabric that quickly turn into a 60" X 70" (with borders even larger) quilt. Choose from jelly rolls we have at the store, or cut your own for a specially themed quilt (western, cats, fishing, kids). You have all day and you will finish your quilt. I promise!

Bertie's Year last Friday of the month, 1-4

Bertie's Year is a small wall hanging, (or you can make each block into a mini quilt for display each month). Bertie is done in flannels and wool (kit only includes flannel). Bertie (the bird) and friends (squirrel, pumpkins) are appliqued with crazy quilt embroidery embellishments.

HAND APPLIQUE CLUB

This is a get-together & stitch class. Many of us are trying hand applique these days-- patterns are calling for a lot more applique. The club is designed for quilters who already do some hand applique, but beginners are welcome as well. We will share techniques, suggest patterns, talk about threads and, in general, just stitch. A little quiet time away from the distractions of home is what we need to get our projects done.

HAND EMBROIDERY CLUB

If you want to learn to hand embroider or just brush up your technique, join us on the second Saturday of the month from 10 to noon. We provide free vintage patterns, and this year we will have free patterns of girls with hats, that you can embroider, embellish and color. Each month Kathy Sconce shows us a new stitch to try, plus, she guides us through thread choices, how to knot, fabrics to use, and tracing techniques.

Knit Pickin' Club

This is another get-together class to sit & knit, work on our projects, share information and get some help. We will share techniques, suggest patterns, but mainly we'll sit & knit (or pick).

Toad Toters

On full moon days (as noted in the calendar) you will get 20% off all purchases (not otherwise discounted) that you can fit in your bag. You must bring your bag to participate. Full Moon Days: May 4 (observed), June 1, July 1, August 29.

Discount Policy

We will honor only one discount -- whichever is largest. You can't combine a 10% with a 25% discount to get a 35% discount. On this we can't be bribed.

Color of the Month

May flowers/floral, June baby novelties, July blue, August black & gray

Join the fun and come feel the difference of quality fabrics.
