QUILT SHOP

March 4, 2016

I don't know whether to talk about an old story or a new one. Back in November I started reading about the White House turkeys, but never got around to writing about them. This week in the news, the political scene is crowded with turkeys, but of a different kind. It's probably safer to stay with the eatable variety, so old story it is.

Did you know that the two turkeys that are chosen to go to the White House get an all-expenses paid trip to Washington? They get a bath, time under a heat lamp, and then transported to DC: In 2014 they were driven by a chauffeured limosine (I'm kidding about the limo, I don't know what they drive) from their farm, to DC, posing for pictures along the way. In 2015, they flew in from California and had people waiting with signs to direct them on their way. They've stayed at the Willard, one of DC's oldest & finest hotels, and they can order anything off the room service menu. Just kidding.

All of this treatment is intended to make them relax, because as you know, or maybe not, turkeys are not the nicest of birds. They have huge claws, can fly to some extent, and, if you've only seen them in a plastic wrap in the grocery store, they're actually pretty big. So the breeder works with them to get them used to flash photos, crowds and lots of questions: What's your favorite strut style? Skoots in boots. (No lie.) And they also have to pose on stage, looking presidential and not flying off (the handle) somewhere. Can you see where this is going?

Anyway, the White House gets to name the turkeys, and this year they were Honest and Abe. The names were chosen by school kids. Presumably the tradition of pardoning turkeys started with Abe Lincoln's son, who urged his dad not to kill the fatted turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. Pardoning turkeys really became a tradition with George HW Bush and has continued at least through this year. If I were a turkey candidate for next year, I'd be hiding in my feathers. I shudder to think what will happen to the Easter Egg roll.

Now, both birds get pardoned and go to live at a swanky turkey farm in Virginia. In the past, birds lived at Mt Vernon, until somebody discovered that Washington didn't raise turkeys, so they couldn't live there any more, not being authentic and all. Some went to Disneyland & Disney World, but there's no report on whether they were tall enough to go on any of the rides. But unfortunately these birds are bred to be eaten, so their life span is based on growing big enough to be eaten. Successfully pardoned birds have yet to make it to their next Thanksgiving. Think about it. Political race. Old candidate. Sorry.

Anyway the names of birds over the past several years have been interesting. This year Honest and Abe are pretty cute. A year ago it was Mac & Cheese. Other names include: May, Apple, Harry, Katie, Liberty, Stars, Popcorn, Carmel, Flyer, Courage, Marshmallow, Gobbler, Biscuits, Pecan, Jerry, Donald, Ted, Bernie, Hillary, Mitch, Marco, Jeb. Just kidding. All those last turkeys are still alive. And some will make it to this Thanksgiving.

Now it's time to play the substitution game. Anywhere in this story, pick your favorite presidential candidate and insert his or her name wherever the word turkey is used. Okay, school kids don't get to choose the names of the candidates, but almost everything else works. What I also find funny is that when you google "White House Turkeys" the names of the candidates don't pop up. Apparently no one has thought to register "whitehouseturkeys.com" for political purposes.....

And as NPR said this morning, we are only 2 months into the election season (if you ignore the last 12 months, at least). I know, I'm so excited, too.

Back basting is a template free method of needle turn applique. No slippery freezer paper or chalked lines on top that never seem to get turned under quite right. This method is especially great for traveling, because your pieces will be basted onto your background -- no need for pins to get in the way. This class is great for beginners and all levels of appliquers. Don't let hand applique frustrate you. It's really easy and relaxing!

Beginning Machine Quilting Wed. Mar 16 6-8:30 $25 Sue Frerich

Be prepared to quilt! You will practice your quilting skills on various samples, using both your walking foot and darning foot. Batting, threads, needles and patterns will be discussed. Who knows? By the time you leave you may even be able to write/quilt your name!

STAY TUNED FOR SPECIALS TO CELEBRATE THE DAY!

Wheel of Mystery Sat. Mar 19 10:30-5 $20 Sue Frerich

Curved piecing is all the rage right now. This traditional quilt, sometimes called Winding Ways, uses plastic templates for easy rotary cutting. Learn how to sew the gentle curves to create this beautiful quilt, & it can be made from your scraps!

Beginning Machine Applique Wed. Mar 23 6-9 $25 Barb Boyer

So many quilts use applique these days. Learn the ins and outs of machine applique, from points to curves. We will practice the button hole/blanket stitch, satin stitch, and you can also play around with your decorative stitches. Threads, fusibles and stabilizers will be discussed.

Bertie's Year & Companions last Friday of the month, 1-4 $20, free if you buy the kit

Bertie's Year & Purfectly Pieced are small wall hangings, (or you can make each block into a mini quilt for display each month). Bertie is done in flannels and wool (kit only includes flannel). Bertie (the bird) and friends (squirrel, pumpkins) are appliqued with crazy quilt embroidery embellishments. The patterns are by Bonnie Sullivan, and you can do any of the series-she has a spring, summer, fall & winter Bertie's, plus the original, and plus the cats. You choose. Class is ongoing-because we need the time to get the embellishing done!

Friday Nighters Fri. Mar 25 5:30-? $10 Barb Boyer

This class will help you get organized for Christmas 2015 -- or just help you get things done. You give me a list of your "to dos" or unfinished projects you want to finish and then each month I check off what you've completed. Trust me. If you need incentive to stay on track, this is it. You can bring your sewing machine or do hand work.

LOTP: Flying Geese Sat. Mar 26, 10:30-5 $20 Barb Boyer

We are highlighting Little House of the Prairie fabrics this Spring, and this is our third quilt. This is a perfect quilt for scraps. We will use the No Math Flying Geese Ruler which makes 4 blocks at a time-and let's you choose from 12 different sizes. And because it is "Flying Geese" there are few tricks to getting the blocks to come out just right. You will be an expert in this method by end of day.

Attic Window Quilt Wed. Mar. 30, 6-8:30 $20 Barb Boyer

Learn the basics of Y-seam construction in this Attic Window quilt. We will work with 2 scenic panels to create a wall hanging that will look like you are seeing through a window-appropriate, right? We will also talk about mitered borders (because it is the same technique). We will use Susan Cleveland's Marvelous Miters book because her method is the best & most accurate that I've ever used for attic window construction.
