

Quilter's Patch Quilt Kits!

This is Edyta Sitar's newest Block of the Month book. And we have it kitted just for you! Spoiler Alert: We have 2 kits left. Kits are $264 or $22/month with credit card. If you are interested please let me know quickly. These kits will not be on the 40% off sale at the end of the month. We also have all the Moda bolts that make up this line. Even though winter has just started, this is the perfect Pick Me Up quilt to brighten the short winter days.

We will also have a Hints & Tips class once a month (I haven't scheduled it yet), in case you need a little help. Look for those classes to start in January or February.

January 6, 2017

Instead of New Year's Resolutions, I thought I would offer a couple of tips for the new year.

Tip #1: After you empty the shop vac, be sure you've put the hose on the suck-the-air-in side and not the push-the-air-out side before you turn it on.

Tip #2. Make sure you empty the shop vac at least 1 day before the cleaning crew gets to the house. See Tip #1.

And under the category of "observations":

1. There is something wrong with celebrating the new Facebook Live with an ad that shows how great the site by showing all your friends what you're eating right now, this very minute. Now I'm not much of a Facebook user, but I could think of bunches of better uses for a live video feed than showing what I'm eating for dinner. To be fair, one of the other ads shows people twirling around on the beach, or some fun place. I guess that's better....

2. Don't live in a harsh climate without a car unless there is good public transportation. I was driving home last night about 6:30 and saw a person on a bicycle pedaling down the snow covered street. It was about minus 12 degrees. At least it wasn't snowing. That's one rough commute.

It is a little hard getting back into the routine of work--I was on vacation in the Los Angeles area, visiting family. It was cold there--mostly in the 60s during the day, 40s at night. I was in heaven. I even wore shorts when I visited Universal Studios and the Wizarding World of Harry Potter.

I had great fun at the Park and was very impressed at how professionally everything was done, from the shows to the friendly staff to the rides. I kept reminding myself that it was a film studio production company, after all. If they can make movies they can do a theme park. But it was still impressive.

I also had great fun with my family and I was reminded that Christmas is all about making cookies, having family movies nights, watching school Christmas shows, opening gifts one at a time, driving around to see fantastic Christmas lights, and spending time in the playgrounds on Christmas Eve to expend all the excess Christmas Eve energy.

And thanks to everyone who came to the customer appreciation sale. We have room for the tons of new fabric that is coming. Harry Potter & Spider-Man & Betty Boop & Lion King have arrived. Soon we will have Hoffman, Wilmington, Stof, Andover and Blank. So stay tuned.

WHAT'S NEW!!

We just got in Harry Potter, Spider-Man, Star Wars, Lion King, Betty Boop, and some Marvel comics fabrics. I didn't have time to get the pics downloaded, but will by next week.
