

It's time for the Finish Your Quilt Sale! First Saturday of the month, through December

Bring your finished tops (they don't have to be quilted) and get your backing, binding and/or batting for 20% off. We want you to finish your quilts by Christmas! But remember, you have to bring in your quilt because, well....we love to see quilts!

October 6, 2017

I don't normally take issue with ads-oh, wait, maybe I do. Anyway, the ad that has caught my attention for months now is the Charmin Ultra Strong TP. You know, the one with the bears.

Well, the storyline goes like this: The bears-, mama, papa & kids-go on vacation. Papa bear goes to use the bathroom (of course) and comes back out screaming that they had to go home because the toilet paper was, well, crappy. Pun intended, sorry.

But mama bear saves the day because she has packed their favorite TP. She begins pulling TP packages (several) out of her suitcase. It's all she packed, apparently. She saves the day.

Think about it. Or not. I've thought about it & have decided that whoever wrote that ad hasn't flown anywhere recently. If you have to pay $25 for a second suitcase just to bring TP with you, wouldn't it be cheaper just to go out & buy $5 worth at the local store after you arrived? I'm just saying.

And you all wondered what I do at night, when I get home. Bet you never figured that I fret about bears taking TP with them on vacation.

But that's not what I wanted to talk about today. I want to talk about football. Not the game, but the interviews afterward. My older brother, who watched more out of amusement than anything else, always marveled at the intelligence of players (and sports casters) who'd seriously remark that in order to win the game you had to put points on the board.

But that's not the worst of the cliches you hear during and after a game, and I think it's time they teach the players better lines. For example, "I'm just going to go out there & have fun & put on a show." This refrain is heard a lot: "I'm just here to have fun." The coaches tell them that in the locker room, apparently, so they don't get so tense before a game: "Just go out & have fun." At the college level, I can agree with that strategy. But when a team is paying multiple millions to players, I hope they don't just go out & have fun. I want them working hard for their money.

Question: "Everyone was dying to see you on the football field. It had to feel fantastic to produce like that."

Answer: "Yeah it felt pretty good, just go out there to have fun it's my main focus to go out there & have fun like I've been doing my whole career and to play with my new teammates. I'm just glad to be on the team."

There's that refrain again-what the PR departments teach: I'm out there to have fun.

Other favorites: Try to make plays (a.k.a. put points on the board); Whatever opportunity I got to be dominate that's what I'm going to do (a.k.a. try to make plays); For us to be successful we have to control the board (a.k.a. put points on the board); We gotta keep working, that's what we got to do (a.k.a. try to make plays).

I think that the PR departments who teach players these lines have watched Bull Durham too many times:

Crash Davis (aging seasoned catcher): It's time to work on your interviews.

Ebby Calvin LaLoosh (rookie pitcher): My interviews? What do I gotta do?

Crash Davis: You're gonna have to learn your clichés. You're gonna have to study them, you're gonna have to know them. They're your friends. Write this down: "We gotta play it one day at a time."

Ebby Calvin LaLoosh: Got to play... it's pretty boring.

Crash Davis: 'Course it's boring, that's the point. Write it down.

Now, some players are fun to listen to—they're smart & articulate and enjoy chatting with sports casters. And then are the players who have memorized their lines pretty well and spit them out regardless of the question asked: "How do you feel after today's loss?" "We gotta keep working." Or "We gotta put points on the board to win." Or "We have to try to make plays." or "We battled with the best of them (a.k.a. we lost)." Those are all polite answers and aren't really what the player is really thinking—remember, he just lost.

But most of the time players struggle with their lines and it's painful to listen. And they barely come close to providing a coherent answer:

Question: Talk about the game plan.

Answer: Yah, I mean I think we do a great job. You out a lead like that, running the ball as much isn't in the game plan any more. When you run the ball so much and run the ball you usually have the lead. [We] obviously did a good job at the beginning of the game and we were able to keep it." ????

Question (to same player): Does it relieve the pressure on defensive when there is a good lead?

Answer: "Yeah I mean yeah I mean yeah I mean when everyone is out there doing their job it's great. You know we gotta do our job. We did our job defensively. We got the ball back to them and they put points on the board. Whenever you have that the outcome is always good."

He's got command of a couple of cliches, he just can't string them together into a coherent sentence.

So the next time you watch football, start a bingo game of cliches. Whoever fills their card first gets to take home the queso dip: you gotta put points on the board to win; gotta play it one day at a time; I'm just here to have fun; gotta try to make plays.....

Or as Eddy Calvin LaLoosh would say about baseball: "A good friend of mine used to say, 'This is a very simple game. You throw the ball, you catch the ball, you hit the ball. Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose, sometimes it rains.' Think about that for a while."

Quilt Roadies on You Tube Watch for updates

We had a visit from Anna Bates, who writes a blog called Quilt Roadies-- which is also a You Tube video. She called me & wanted to know if she could come and film. The answer was yes.

She came on Saturday, which was the kickoff for the Pony Express. It was a fun chaotic morning with Anna filming, shoppers wanting the Pony Express fabric, and the free embroidery class all going on at the same time. Anna joined our embroidery class for awhile. We didn't have the pony rides, but Jo did bring in stick horses. We also had trail food, including trail mix, beef jerky, honey and cookies from the Bread Basket.

Lots of quilters came by that day and had lots of show & tells, which Anna got on film. Anna's video will be posted soon, so you can check it out at Quilt Roadies on You Tube--just Google it. She has lots of videos posted from her travels around the United States. She likes to highlight quilt shops as she goes and it was great to have her here. The latest posting is from Crawford, Nebraska. We'll be up soon.

I'll keep you posted regarding the video from our shop, but for now, check out all of her videos and you will find great tutorials on a variety of quilting topics plus quilt stores from around the U.S. She's posted from Sturgis--she's getting closer to us. Soon we'll be up!

We have a Row by Row Winner!

Betty brought in her quilt last Friday. All the rows are from Wyoming and she did a beautiful job!

WHAT'S NEW!!

From Hoffman (plus 4 more):

From In the Beginning. We will do this as a block of the month. Fabric will come sometime in October--but, and there is always a but -- I will only be able to kit a limited number of kits. If you are interested, let me know. I just got the kitting requirements today. I will know in a few days what the kits will cost. We will kit it block by block, but we may sell it two blocks at a time. I may or may not also do the quilt as a class. Just so you know, the animals are all fused and the fabric used is a multi color floral:

The Bali Wedding Star is a Judy Niemeyer foundation paper-pieced pattern, but Angela and Tina have simplified the color selections. In class you will learn the basics of foundation piecing, plus you will learn how to deal with those curves-really easy, don't worry. The first class will discuss color selection, cutting and organization. The remaining classes will focus on sewing and completion. Please sign up early because the background fabric requirements may require the ordering of specific bolts of fabric. Come in, choose colors you are interested in, and I will bring the bolts into the store.

So many quilts use applique these days. Learn the ins and outs of machine applique, from points to curves. We will practice the button hole/blanket stitch, satin stitch, and you can also play around with your decorative stitches. Threads, fusibles and stabilizers will be discussed.

Block of the Month First Sat of month 10:30-11:15 FREE Barb Boyer
Join at any time. You get a free fat quarter if you come to class with the previous month's completed block. This year we're making a basket quilt. Each block will be a different basket. The challenge, if you choose to accept it, is to use plaids!

Christmas Triangle Frenzy Wed. Oct 18 $20 Barb Boyer
If you haven't done a Triangle Frenzy table runner -- why not? We have all sorts of great Christmas 10" border prints that are crying out to become a Triangle Frenzy table runner. And we have a couple of new patterns that show different ways to put your triangles together.

Cowgirl Star Sat Oct 14, 1-6 $20 Sue Frerich

English Paper Piecing 4th (or last) Mondays 2-4 Barb Boyer $20 (But not in September, sorry)
English paper piecing dates back to the early 1800s. It is a hand sewing method that uses paper templates to help sew complex angles together, like hexagons. Any number of different designs can be made, including Grandmother's Flower Garden-this is the pattern I am doing this year. Several patterns will be available, including traditional Flower Garden and the Downton Abbey free pattern.

Fat Quarter Fun Sat. Sept. 9, OR Mon Sept 11; Sat. Nov. 11 OR Mon Nov 13 1-6; $20

Barb Boyer & Sue Frerich

Every other month we will make a quilt using fat quarters (plus additional fabrics for borders). The September Fat Quarter Fun Quilt is called Between Friends, and it is out of the Happy Hour book. November's quilt is a wonky 9-patch-which will be on display soon.

Friday Nighters, last Friday of the month 5:30-? $10 Barb Boyer

This class will help you get organized for Christmas 2015 -- or just help you get things done. You give me a list of your "to dos" or unfinished projects you want to finish and then each month I check off what you've completed. Trust me. If you need incentive to stay on track, this is it. You can bring your sewing machine or do hand work.

Gypsy Wife First Sat of month, 1-4, Oct through at least December $25 Sue Frerich

This is a quilt mad from strips, blocks, more strips & more blocks. It's not a sampler quilt, but it contains many different blocks in different sizes. It's not a strip quilt, because it contains blocks. But it is a stunning quilt, one where you can use your scraps and go crazy or stay a little more coordinated by using a collection. The best description is a picture.

Hand Applique/Back Basting

Wed. Sept 27, 10-noon Sandra Freeburg $25

Back basting is a template free method of needle turn applique. No slippery freezer paper or chalked lines on top that never seem to get turned under quite right. This method is especially great for traveling, because your pieces will be basted onto your background -- no need for pins to get in the way. This class is great for beginners and all levels of appliquers. Don't let hand applique frustrate you. It's really easy and relaxing!

Hand Embroidery Club 2nd Sat. of the month, 10-noon FREE (but see below) Kathy Sconce

(Club normally meets the 2nd Sat. of each month from 10-noon) We are finishing up our barn project that we started last fall. In January we are planning a new adventure, staring wool! Come to class, see what we're planning, and don't forget to bring a project to stitch on.

Hand Quilting Wed. Sept. 20, 10-noon $25 Sandra Freeburg

Hand quilting is an art that should not be lost. By the end of Sandra's class you will be hand quilting with confidence. Everyone has at least one special quilt that calls out for hand quilting. And there is nothing better than the feel of a hand quilted quilt. Do yourself a favor and learn this art that connects us to our past -- our mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers.

Hoffman Wildlife Quilt using Hoffman's Call of the Wild panel and a Mountain Peaks Creation pattern. Wed Oct 25, 10:30-4 $20 Barb Boyer
The class will focus on how to fussy cut the panel to turn your quilt into a "looking through the window" styled quilt. You need 2 yards of the Call of the Wild panel-don't wait too long. This fabric sells out quickly! $20

Knit Pickers' Club 2nd Wed of each month, 6-8:30 Carol Moler
Every second Thursday, we're getting together to practice our knitting. The Club is open to all skill levels. We want to share what we've learned, find new patterns, and simply just sit and knit. We're currently working on some felting projects, but we're planning on heading into fingerless mittens, mittens, and socks.

Monthly Minis First Saturday of the Month, Feb-Dec. 4-6 $10 for the year (plus patterns or kits)
This year we are doing Holiday House, pre laser cut. Each kit will be app. $40. These blocks can be made into a quilt, or kept separate as individual wall hangings.

Pumpkin Panel with lights Mon Oct 9 1-4 $20 Barb Boyer
Add fun borders, learn about some fun machine quilting ideas (you won't have time in class to machine quilt) and find out how to illuminate your pumpkin patch wall hanging! We have the lights!

One Block Wonder Panel Quilt Sat Sept 23, 30 & Oct. 28 see calendar for times

$25 Sue Frerich

You don't want to miss this class. The technique is called One Block Wonder and you need 7 panels for the quilt. Sue used a beautiful eagle print (keep your fingers crossed, we may be able to get 1 bolt). But we have lots of interesting panels that would make a fantastic One Block Wonder Panel Quilt. (I'm looking at the Star Wars panels...). The technique used is similar to a Stack & Whack quilt, but the difference is in how it is sewn together.

This is truly a stunning quilt. You don't want to miss this class!

Pillow Case Party Sun. Nov 26 1-4 FREE

If you've never made a pillow case, or just want some time to sew a pillow case, this class is for you. This is a great mother/daughter styled class and pillow cases make great presents!

Spoon Quilting Wed. Oct 11, 10-noon $25 Sandra Freeburg

No more sore fingers! Learn to Spoon Quilt, with a special spoon quilting tool. This tool helps you keep your stitches tiny and even without pricking your finger. Need to have basic quilting skills (rocking motion quilting).

Trip Around the World Sept 13, 27, & Oct 4 $25 Barb Boyer

This is a Trip Around the World-on Point! The quilt measures app. 95" X 95" and is panel sewn using 8 different fabrics. Pattern is given out in class only. You don't have to choose your fabrics before class-the first class is all about color!

This is another get-together class to sit & knit, work on our projects, share information and get some help. We will share techniques, suggest patterns, but mainly we'll sit & knit (or pick).
